

Special announcement

1. for students, doctoral candidates, scientists "Stibet22ua"
2. for students enrolled in Ukraine from EU funds "Erasmus123ua"

If you have been forced to flee due to the war in Ukraine or are in need in Germany due to the war, you are eligible for the following scholarships:

1. "Stibet22ua" You have a foreign nationality and a foreign higher education entrance qualification.
2. ... or you were enrolled in Ukraine at the outbreak of the war (or at least 12 months before) and are currently enrolled at HfMT as a guest student. Then you are eligible for "Erasmus123ua".

An application should be sent by email to international@HfMT-Hamburg.de by 15 October and should include a PDF with the following documents:

- the completed and signed application form
- a letter of motivation in English or German
- two letters of recommendation from teachers
- the certificate of enrolment from HfMT, if available
- a copy of your Ukrainian student card of the year 2022 and/or of your Ukrainian university degree of the year 2021 - 2022

Only the application form must additionally be sent in printed form with original signature to the International Office at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater, Harvestehuder Weg 12, 20148 Hamburg.

The "Arbeitskreis Internationales" decides on the awarding of the scholarships usually two weeks after the deadline for submission. The amount of the monthly instalments may vary, depending on the availability of funds.