

Special announcement

for students, doctoral candidates, scientists "Stibet22ua"

If you have been forced to flee due to the war in Ukraine or are in need in Germany due to the war, you are eligible for the following scholarship:

„Stibet22ua“ from funds of the Federal Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany if you have a foreign nationality and a higher education entrance qualification

Applications must be submitted by 15 April for the current summer semester or by 15 October for the current winter semester by e-mail to international@HfMT-Hamburg.de and contain a PDF file with the following documents:

- the completed and signed application form
- a letter of motivation in English or German
- a letter of recommendation from a teacher
- certificates of achievement from the HfMT
- a curriculum vitae in tabular form
- the certificate of enrollment from the HfMT
- as an optional: proof of social and/or political commitment in an international context

Only the application form must also be sent in printed form with original signature to the Office for International Affairs, Harvestehuder Weg 12, 20148 Hamburg.

The „International Affairs Working Group“ usually decides on the awarding of scholarships two weeks after the submission deadline. The amount and number of monthly installments will vary depending on the availability of funds.